CII's Young Indians starts Meghalaya Chapter

By Our Reporter

SHILLONG : Confederation of Indian Industry's Young Indians (Yi) launched its Meghalaya Chapter in Shillong recently.

Chief Minister Mukul Sangma was present as the chief guest at the occasion. Among other dignitaries present were P B O Warjri, Chief Secretary, Government of Meghalaya, R M Mishra, Principal Secretary, Government of Meghalaya, M P Bezbaruah, Member, NEC, and RO Wallang, IFS (Retd).

Addressing the gathering, the Chief Minister expressed his pleasure at being at the launch of Young Indians, Meghalaya Chapter. With a population of 30 lakh and 60,000 people employed by the government, Sangma said that it is important that the youth are able to take opportunities present in the private sector, as there is only limited space in the public sector for Meghalaya's growing youth population.
