CHOTA COP CARDS & CHOTA COP PARADE: A TRANSFORM-ATIVE STEP IN ROAD SAFETY

“A Landmark Collaboration with the Transport Department, Govt. of Assam”

Young Indians (Yi) has always believed in empowering the youth to drive meaningful change. The Chota Cop initiative is a testament to this vision, turning children into road safety advocates who assess and guide their parents on responsible driving. In a groundbreaking move, the Transport Department of Assam officially adopted the initiative, amplifying its impact across the state. With its widespread reach, Chota Cop is about shaping a generation that prioritizes road safety.

WHAT

A movement that turns children into Chota Cops, empowering them to assess, educate, and advocate for road safety within their families and communities.

HOW

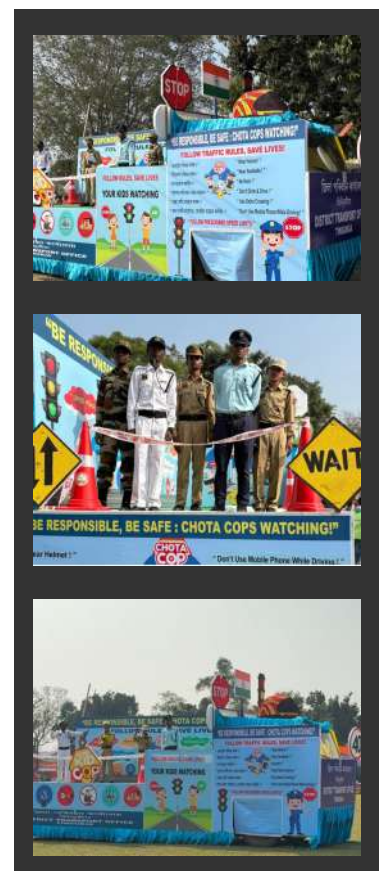

- ✔ Chota Cop Parade: Featured in Republic Day celebrations across 10 districts of Assam.
- ✔ Inspiring Video Campaign: Special message by Shri Debashish Bora, Assistant Inspector General of Police to drive engagement.
- ✔ Structured Execution: A detailed SOP guided Circle Officers and Traffic Police, streamlining training, data collection, and reporting.

IMPACT

- ✔ 40,000+ children sensitized on road safety by January 31st.
- ✔ 28,000+ responses received, reflecting strong engagement.

PEOPLE & COLLABORATIONS

- ✔ Transport Department, Govt. of Assam officially adopted Chota Cop.
- ✔ Active participation of Traffic Police & Circle Officers across multiple districts.
- ✔ Yi Guwahati Chapter's leadership in executing and scaling the initiative.

With Chota Cop, Young Indians is shaping a generation of responsible citizens, ensuring safer roads—one child at a time.

HEALTHCARE WHERE IT'S NEEDED MOST :
YI BHUBANESWAR'S IMPACT IN BOUDH
ON FEBRUARY 16, 2025

“When healthcare reaches the heart of rural Odisha, lives change for the better. From check-ups to awareness, this camp brought real impact to 18 villages.”

WHAT

In the heart of Boudh, Odisha, healthcare took center stage as Yi Bhubaneswar, through its Rural Initiative (RI) – Health & Active Living, organized a Mega Health Check-up Camp. The initiative aimed to provide free medical consultations, medicines, and hygiene kits to underserved communities across villages like Rambhikata, Bhartapur, Balarampur, Fakirpur, Dimirijhuli, Titirikata, Bishnupur, and many more.

HOW

The camp saw an overwhelming response, with 485 individuals from 18 villages attending. A team of medical professionals from various specialties provided free check-ups, covering everything from general health to dental and hygiene care. To make the camp more accessible, buses were arranged to transport villagers to the venue.

IMPACT

- ✔ 485 lives impacted through medical consultations and treatment at the Mega Health Checkup Camp.
- ✔ Menstrual health awareness session empowered women and young girls with knowledge on hygiene and well-being.
- ✔ Socio-economic impact of drug abuse session highlighted the long-term consequences on individuals and communities.
- ✔ Basic personal & hand hygiene awareness helped children adopt healthier habits for disease prevention
- ✔ Free dental checkups & distribution of dental kits ensured better oral health care for children and adults.

PEOPLE & COLLABORATIONS

Elderly villagers who had been enduring chronic pain finally found medical relief. Young girls and women participated in menstrual health sessions, breaking taboos and embracing hygiene awareness. And children received essential dental care.

Beyond a Camp, Towards a Healthier Community

Healthcare is a right, not a privilege—Yi Bhubaneswar is committed to making it a reality. One initiative, many lives changed. The journey continues.
