LEADERSHIP ACADEMY FOR CO-CHAIRS 2025

14-17 AUGUST 2025

C H E N N A I

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY
Yi INITIATIVE

The countdown has begun for one of the most awaited milestones in the Yi calendar — the Leadership Academy (LA) for Co-Chairs 2025.

This year's edition will bring together an exceptional cohort of dynamic Co-Chairs from 66 Yi chapters across India and Singapore - all united by their commitment to lead, build, and drive nation-building through action.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Immersive Learning Journeys
- Collaborative Modules
- Powerful Interactions with senior leadership
- Vision-building sessions to align strategy with culture

WHY IT MATTERS

- Leadership Academy is more than a program - it's a transformational leadership experience
- It's where culture meets clarity, and individual purpose aligns with collective mission.

As Yi grows, LA remains the heartbeat of our leadership engine — preparing Co-Chairs not just as project champions, but as culture-bearers and vision holders.

The next generation of Yi leaders is being forged here — bold, collaborative, and ready to lead with both heart and mind.

Yi FARISHTEY ACCIDENT

First Responder Certified Training Program
Real Life Impact

WHAT

- A trained Yi Farishtey Certified Member, Haribaskar, who also serves as Yi Erode Yuva Chair, successfully administered first aid to an accident victim, showcasing the effectiveness of Yi's road safety intervention efforts.

HOW

- During a recent road incident, Haribaskar identified that the victim had sustained fractures in the Ulna and Radius but remained conscious. Drawing upon the Yi Farishtey First Responder Training, he applied first aid confidently and correctly—managing the injury until emergency services arrived.

His preparedness and calm execution of first response protocol were specifically acknowledged by the 108 emergency personnel and those at the scene.

IMPACT

- This marked the 5th time Haribaskar has provided post-accident support using skills acquired through Yi Farishtey training. His response played a crucial role in
 - Stabilizing the victim before paramedics arrived
 - Reducing the risk of fatality through timely intervention
 - Inspiring confidence in the effectiveness of community-based emergency training

PEOPLE & COLLABORATIONS

- 108 Emergency Response Team | ➤ Yi Erode Chapter | ➤ Yi Road Safety Vertical
- Yi Farishtey Training Program in association with EMRI

This real-life story reflects the growing network of certified responders across Yi chapters who are turning training into action—and saving lives on the ground.

PROJECT MALARVADI | VADATTUPARA FOREST RANGE

From an Abandoned Building to a Vibrant Play School
Led by Yuva – St. Peter's College

WHAT

- Project Malarvadi is a transformative Yuva and Rural Initiatives project by the students of St. Peter's College, aimed at converting an abandoned building in Vadattupara Forest Range into a lively play school for local children.

HOW

- The project kicked off on March 7th, beginning with a day dedicated to cleaning, prepping, and restoring the space. Students brought brooms, mops, and boundless energy to clear years of neglect.

Key milestones:

- Thorough cleaning of floors, walls, and surroundings
- Removal of waste and overgrown weeds
- Flooring and wiring completed
- First coat of paint applied, adding color and hope to the structure

What once stood as a forgotten space is now glowing with renewal and readiness.

IMPACT

The transformation marks more than just a physical change.

- Created a safe, joyful learning space
- Brought together youth through collective action
- Sparked community interest and pride

With each step—cleaning, painting, wiring—the space evolved into a symbol of hope, learning, and joy for children in the community.

PEOPLE & COLLABORATIONS

- Yi Yuva – St. Peter's College
- Local community support from Vadattupara
- Driven by student volunteers with passion and purpose

Project Malarvadi stands as a beautiful example of how youth-led action can create lasting change. One building. One brushstroke. One future transformed.

This initiative reflects Yi's deep commitment to building safer learning environments and empowering teachers as the first line of prevention and support.

Yi HYDERABAD

MASOOM X MARHAM NGO

WAVE – AUTISM AWARENESS WALK

GACHIBOWLI STADIUM, HYDERABAD
2000+ PARTICIPANTS

In collaboration with Marham NGO, the Yi Hyderabad Masoom team participated in WAVE – an Autism Awareness Walk, to promote inclusion and emphasize the importance of Child Safety for children on the autism spectrum.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

- 2 km Walk for Inclusion
- Began with the National Anthem, sung by a child on the autism spectrum
- Zumba Session to energize the crowd
- Puppet Show and Interactive Carnival Stalls for families and children

The atmosphere was one of joy, unity, and shared purpose—making it a celebration of inclusion through action.

MASOOM IMPACT AT THE EVENT

- Distributed 'Just Say No' child safety books to parents, caregivers & participants
- Focused on teaching children with autism about safe and unsafe touch
- Connected with multiple organizations working in the autism space
- Scheduled follow-up child safety sessions with autism support institutions

WHY IT MATTERED

This event wasn't just about awareness—it was about action.

- Every step taken was for acceptance, safety, and love
- It wasn't just a walk—it was a wave of safe inclusion

Yi TIRUPATI

100 DAYS OF IMPACT

THROUGH FIRST RESPONDER TRAINING

CELEBRATING LIFESAVING ACTION | MAY 2025

On the occasion of World Emergency Medicine Day, Yi Tirupati, in collaboration with Amara Hospital, marked its 100th day milestone with powerful, life-saving initiatives under the Road Safety & Health verticals.

STORY 1

CPR & First Responder Training @ Tirupati RTO

- 27 May 2025
- Tirupati Regional Transport Office (RTO)
- 100+ including District Transport Officer, RTO staff, transport drivers, students, and admin teams

Led by Dr. Sivarama Krishna Reddy, Co-Chair – Health, Yi Tirupati, the session provided practical training in emergency response, CPR techniques, and quick-action strategies.

This was the second First Responder Training session in May targeted at Public Sector Staff, reinforcing Yi Tirupati's sustained commitment to public health and emergency preparedness

Farishtey Session @ Tirupati Airport

- 8 May 2025 | • Airport Training Hall | • 30+ Airport Staff Trained

Conducted by Dr. Sivarama Krishna Reddy and the Emergency Response Team from Amara Hospital, this Basic Life Support (BLS) session trained airport personnel on:

- CPR & AED usage | • Airway obstruction management
- Choking response techniques | • Recognizing & reacting to emergencies

Hands-on demos ensured each participant walked away with real-world skills ready to apply in high-stress scenarios.

WHY IT MATTERS

These programs highlight Yi Tirupati's unwavering dedication to community first action, equipping key frontline teams with the tool to save lives—one trained responder at a time

With gratitude,

Team Road Safety & Health, Yi Tirupati

HIGH-IMPACT INITIATIVES ACROSS CHAPTERS

Yi JAIPUR – OXYGEN PARK PLANTATION DRIVE

- 🌱 In April, Yi Jaipur planted 3,000 saplings at the Gandhi Nagar Community Center, creating an 'Yi Oxygen Park' using the Miyawaki forest method. This dense plantation model will enhance biodiversity, improve air quality, and foster a green microclimate in the region.

Yi TRICHY – WATER BODY REJUVENATION PROJECTS

- 🌱 In May, Yi Trichy completed 3 water body rejuvenations:
 - 🌱 Ettayapatti Village Irrigation Tank (2 acres)
 - 🌱 M. Edayapatti Panchayat Lake (2 acres)
 - 🌱 Muthalvarpatti Kanakan Kalam Lake (1.5 acres)
- 🌱 These projects are already contributing to rainwater harvesting, groundwater recharge, and sustainable agriculture in their respective communities.

Yi MADURAI – MEGA E-WASTE COLLECTION DRIVE

- 🌱 Leading up to World Environment Day, Yi Madurai initiated a month-long Mega E-Waste Collection Campaign. Over 410 kg of e-waste was collected in May, promoting responsible disposal, urban sustainability, and increased awareness around digital waste management.

TOGETHER, WE GROW GREENER.

Yi Climate Change Vertical continues to lead the way in creating impactful, measurable, and scalable change for a sustainable Bharat.
